Tutorials available for novice builders

Welcome to Solid Model Memories – an internet site devoted to a unique hobby. One that is historical and enduring yet current and modern; one that is individualistic yet cooperative and supportive and, a group that spans both space and time. Such a site or club that at once offers to supply so many conflicting needs can only be described as, well, unique.

Cliff Strachan 1931 – 2019

Solid wood modeling survives through Ray Bennett's vision of creating a place for like-minded craftsmen to gather and share their passion.

The Forum continues to be a place to post progress photos of our members' projects and holds a growing list of tutorials for the novice builder.

The Gallery provides free access to plans as well as photos of all models submitted over the years. All images are accessible without membership and all files may be downloaded for free.

Solid Model Memories issues an annual yearbook to commemorate our modelers' submissions. The 2024 submissions are as follows

Quote

Hi Lou, Happy New Year. Thank you for the 2019 poster, showing my models (CF-ARF, Boeing Totem, CF-JTO-X, Avian). Did I mention that I have a train layout (HO Scale 1/87). They have been made a few years back. Naturally, I made them "Canadian Bush Plane" (my favorite interest), solid models. Some have original registration and others are "fictional or personal" (CF-GUY). Sending a few pics of them, here is a list of them, kindly pass it along to members for viewing. Cheers. Guy. CF-Man Husky (in St. Andrews compound). CF-YUG Grumman Goose. CF-AYS Waco (in our museum). CF-BNP Fox Moth (in our museum). CF-JDY Sea Bee. CF-GUI Sea Bee (owner of "Gander Line Railroad). CF-OBE Norseman (Red Lake, flew in it 2002). CF-EIQ Norseman, on ski (on layout, small airport). CF-MAA Beaver (kit by Osborn, laser cut, bass & plywood), (in our museum). "C-YBZD" Cessna, (Osborn kit). And CF-LZO Norseman (on truck bed, on layout), (Alta., was for sale a few years ago).
